Tales from the Odyssey by Mary Pope Osborne The mythical adventures of Odysseus.

The Geronimo Stilton series by Geronimo Stilton Timid mouse Geronimo Stilton reluctantly goes on adventures.

Try these series too. The books in them are a little bit longer.

The 39 Clues by various authors

A brother and sister must race around the world to solve
39 clues that will reveal a mysterious family secret
(shelved under j THIRTY NINE)

The Dragon Slayers Academy by Kate McMullan A boy and his pet pig begin their studies at the Dragon Slayers Academy.

The Boxcar Children by Gertrude Chandler Warner Four siblings stick together to solve mysteries in these classic stories.

Myth-O-Mania by Kate McMullan The Greek myths with a funny twist.

The Time Warp Trio by John Scieszka
Share the wacky adventures of the Time Warp Trio
as they travel through time and history.

The Bunnicula Books by James Howe
The household dog and cat think the new pet rabbit is a vampire.

The Ramona and Henry Books by Beverly Cleary
Share funny adventures with Ramona and Henry and their families and friends

The Encyclopedia Brown Mysteries by Donald Sobol See if you can solve the mysteries before Encyclopedia Brown.

And, if you haven't already tried them, read

The Magic Tree House Books by Mary Pope Osborne
Travel through history and time with the kids who visit the Magic Tree House.

Find these and other great books at the Mt. Lebanon Public Library, Pittsburgh, PA 15228 www.mtlebanonlibrary.org 412-531-1912

Updated 201

If you like The Magic Tree House Books try some books in these other series:

The Junie B. Jones Stories by Barbara Parks Junie gets into funny mischief in these books.

The Zack Files by Dan Greenburg
Share out-of-the-world-adventures with 10 year old Zack.

The Secrets of Droon by Tony Abbott Three friends discover a magical world beneath the cellar stairs.

The Pee Wee Scouts by Judy Delton
Boys and girls in the Pee Wee Scout Troop have many adventures together.

The Meg Mackintosh Mysteries by Lucinda Landon Help Meg solve mysteries by reading the stories and studying the pictures for clues.

Tales of My Father's Dragon by Ruth Gannett A young boy's friendship with a flying baby dragon.

The Kids of the Polk Street School by Patricia Reilly Giff The second graders of Polk Street School have fun together.

The Arthur Chapter Books by Stephen Krensky Marc Brown's Arthur the aardvark and the gang in longer stories about their fun adventures together.

The Cam Jansen Mysteries by David Adler Cam, who has an amazing photographic memory, solves mysteries with the help of her friends.

The Emily Eyefinger Mysteries by Duncan Ball Emily has an extra eye at the end of her finger that helps her solve mysteries.

Tales from the Odyssey by Mary Pope Osborne The mythical adventures of Odysseus.

The Geronimo Stilton series by Geronimo Stilton Timid mouse Geronimo Stilton reluctantly goes on adventures.

Try these series too. The books in them are a little bit longer.

The 39 Clues by various authors

A brother and sister must race around the world to solve
39 clues that will reveal a mysterious family secret
(shelved under j THIRTY NINE)

The Dragon Slayers Academy by Kate McMullan A boy and his pet pig begin their studies at the Dragon Slayers Academy.

The Boxcar Children by Gertrude Chandler Warner Four siblings stick together to solve mysteries in these classic stories.

Myth-O-Mania by Kate McMullan The Greek myths with a funny twist.

The Time Warp Trio by John Scieszka Share the wacky adventures of the Time Warp Trio as they travel through time and history.

The Bunnicula Books by James Howe
The household dog and cat think the new pet rabbit is a vampire.

The Ramona and Henry Books by Beverly Cleary Share funny adventures with Ramona and Henry and their families and friends.

The Encyclopedia Brown Mysteries by Donald Sobol See if you can solve the mysteries before Encyclopedia Brown.

And, if you haven't already tried them, read

The Magic Tree House Books by Mary Pope Osborne Travel through history and time with the kids who visit the Magic Tree House.

> Find these and other great books at the Mt. Lebanon Public Library, Pittsburgh, PA 15228 www.mtlebanonlibrary.org 412-531-1912

> > Updated 2012

If you like The Magic Tree House Books try some books in these other series:

The Junie B. Jones Stories by Barbara Parks Junie gets into funny mischief in these books.

The A to Z Mysteries by Ron Roy
Third grade friends solve mysteries in these books with titles from A to Z.

The Zack Files by Dan Greenburg Share out-of-the-world-adventures with 10 year old Zack.

The Secrets of Droon by Tony Abbott
Three friends discover a magical world beneath the cellar stairs.

The Pee Wee Scouts *by Judy Delton*Boys and girls in the Pee Wee Scout Troop have many adventures together.

The Meg Mackintosh Mysteries by Lucinda Landon Help Meg solve mysteries by reading the stories and studying the pictures for clues.

Tales of My Father's Dragon by Ruth Gannett A young boy's friendship with a flying baby dragon.

The Kids of the Polk Street School by Patricia Reilly Giff The second graders of Polk Street School have fun together.

The Arthur Chapter Books by Stephen Krensky Marc Brown's Arthur the aardvark and the gang in longer stories about their fun adventures together.

The Cam Jansen Mysteries by David Adler Cam, who has an amazing photographic memory, solves mysteries with the help of her friends.

The Emily Eyefinger Mysteries by Duncan Ball Emily has an extra eye at the end of her finger that helps her solve mysteries.