This video is one of many done by Crista Cowen of Ancestry.com. There are hundreds more listed at this link: <https://www.youtube.com/results?q=barefoot+genealogist> If you want to explore beyond Ancestry.com, I suggest you search for "Genealogy 101" on YouTube.

June and July bring two separate week long classes to La Roche College. Information about those are here: <http://www.gripitt.org/>

Several people asked when Jim Stuber will be volunteering at the Family History Center at 46 School Street in Greentree so they can get some free assistance. Since schedules change, the best way to find out is to email this address.
