

Our speaker this month was Elissa Scalise Powell, who gave a talk titled "Rubik's Cube Genealogy: A New Twist on Your Old Data". For those of you who missed her very interesting presentation on how to look at data you already have to gain new insights into your ancestors, here is a videotaped version of it from a few years ago.

<https://www.familysearch.org/ask/learningViewer/330>

Here's an early view of the 2018 courses that her organization will be offering in June and July in Pittsburgh.

<http://www.gripitt.org/2018-courses/>